New Members to the Council

Last Monday two new members joined our council by taking their 1st degree. Please welcome Steve Dastous and Mike Funk to our ranks. This month we also had a transfer into the council, Marcil Trepanier

Council Elections

Scholarship Applications

St. Matthew Council #7572 is planning to award $500 scholarships to one or two deserving students depending upon the number of candidates submitting applications. All candidates must be either a council member or an immediate family member (including grandchildren) who are registered at an accredited college or school. In order to provide a little extra time for the student to complete his/her essay application forms are enclosed in this month's newsletter. We are asking that the completed forms and essays be mailed to the council's address or mailed/delivered directly to David Kling, 74 Meetinghouse Rd. no later than Thursday, June 30th.

Dads and Moms please don't let your child or grandchild forget to get their essay and application filled out and mailed before June 30th. At this point we have received NO applications.

Mother's Day Flowers

A total of 750 flowers were handed out to parishioners on Mother's Day weekend. Thanks to all of our brothers, family members and others that assisted in distributing the flowers. The proceeds were sent from the church to New Hampshire Birthright. Again, thanks to everyone who took their time to help out in this very worthwhile task.

NH STATE CONVENTION REPORT

The State K of C Convention was held at the Radisson Hotel in Nashua on April 29th thru May 1st. GK Bob Guyre and FS Dave Kling were the voting delegates representing our Council.

Our own PGK, Wayne Griffin, was reelected as State Deputy, which means he will be the CEO for the State over this next year.

Congratulations to Wayne on his outstanding accomplishments over the past year and we look forward to more of the same in the upcoming year.

Below is a proposed list of officers for 2015-2016. It is time that 3rd degree members of our council step up and declare their candidacy for an office at the meeting when elections are held. As you can see, there are several positions that need to be filled with new names. Do please consider speaking up and volunteering as a candidate for office at the meeting.
