

Theater Projected at Valley Village

Structure Will Entail
$100,000 Investment

A $100,000 theater building is to be constructed in Valley Village, at the intersection of Magnolia and Laurel Canyon Blvds., North Hollywood, according to announcement by Samuel K. Decker and Bernard J. Leavitt, operators of a chain of theaters.

The latest developments in theater construction and equipment will be featured. A large stage will be installed as accommodation for meetings of garden clubs and other civic organizations.

Bob Symonds, North Hollywood real estate broker, handled the sale of the property for this development.
